Grupo Natac S.L. and Radient Technologies Launch Natac Solutions at SupplySide West *Advanced-Efficacy Extracts Offer Condition-Specific Functional Benefits

Edmonton, Canada and Madrid, Spain (November 7, 2018) – Radient Technologies Inc. (TSX Venture: RTI) and Grupo Natac S.L. (Natac) are pleased to announce the formal launch of their joint venture Natac Solutions at SupplySide West November 7-9, 2018 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Natac Solutions will bring revolutionary health and wellness ingredients to the market and will be showing at SupplySide West (Booth 5334) for its first industry appearance.

“We saw an opportunity with our plant-based, clinically validated ingredients and RTI’s innovative extraction technology,” says Antonio Delgado, Natac CEO. “By leveraging each other’s strengths, we see unlimited potential in what we can create. We believe our combined approach to botanical extractions allows us—and our customers—to take the next step in the nutraceutical industry.”

Natac’s approach to ingredient development preserves the integrity of the holistic plant profile (Full Plant Profile) and simultaneously extracts all beneficial phytochemical ingredients so they can work together as nature intended. The final product offers a concentrated extracts with consistent quality and exceptional bioavailability in lower doses. RTI’s patented technology (MAP™), enhances the extraction process by increasing yield and purity while reducing processing time and energy.

“By implementing our disruptive, groundbreaking technology with Natac’s products, we believe that Natac Solutions will be able to provide the market place with innovative ingredients backed by strong science,” says Denis Taschuk, RTI CEO. “That’s a win-win for us and for brands looking to incorporate botanical ingredients in their products.”

The joint venture creates value both for the companies involved and the health and wellness brands they serve. For more information on Natac Solutions, visit www.NatacGroup.com and Booth 5334 at SupplySide West on Nov. 8-9, 2018.
